Editor's Message

Dear Readers,

It is an enormous privilege to present the 10th issue of UDGAM-the official newsletter of GNIOT Group.

This semester was a showcase of spectrum of activity. We started this semester by welcoming the New Year - 2016. GNIOTians showed their mantle in all the spheres, be it academics, sports, cultural and social. We had a mega sports day event "Spardhaa", where students got to demonstrate their sportsmanship. Then we had a two-day technical-cultural extravagant "Fusion - 2016", in which we had a huge response from participants from NCR. The highlight of the fest was a power-packed performance by Alfhaz. The students also initiated tree-plantation drive in the campus. Various seminars, workshops and industrial visits were also organized by various departments for their respective students.

The college carved its name in National arena by clinching prestigious awards. The college received "Best Engineering College in Delhi-NCR 2016", "Sustainability Award-Placement & Career Building Award", "CSR Top Institute of India 2016". The college also opened Center of Excellence with CISCO Network Academy and Microsoft Technologies.

The institute saw some prestigious placements in this current session. The Training & Placement Cell organized various in-campus and off-campus placement drives generating ample opportunities for our students. Mr. Ankit Singh of CSE got placed in Microsoft Corporation with a package of 7laks p.a. The final year students of Department of Mechanical Engineering designed and fabricated Off-road Buggy which was in top 15 designs showcased in the competition conducted by GBU.

The Udgam was re-launched in the last semester after a gap of two years. And we are over-whelmed by the response the readers gave us. We wish that our association remains as strong and that we continue to receive your valuable suggestions for the coming times as well.

Thanks and wishing you a very happy reading!

ESSENCE OF BEING AN ENGINEER...

From Editor's Desk

In today's world, innovation and development are the key tools of shaping our future. Things which were a fragment of our imagination are now a reality. Every day, every hour, every minute, every second, something new is being conceived and then fabricated. This is the era of engineers and is bound to stay for a long long time...

But who is an engineer? An engineer is a practitioner of engineering, concerned with applying scientific knowledge, mathematics, and ingenuity to develop solutions for technical, social and commercial problems. Then what is engineering? Wikipedia says "Engineering is the application of mathematics, empirical evidence and scientific, economic, social, and practical knowledge in order to invent, innovate, design, build, maintain, research, and improve structures, machines, tools, systems, components, materials, and processes." But it forgot to mention that, engineering inculcates curiosity, open mindedness, reflection, collaboration, resourcefulness, resilience, visualization, to name a few. Equipped with these the engineer forays in the new dimension of ingenuity.

So what makes an engineer? Is it the skill set with which one is born or can it be cultivated. Well we all have an engineer with in us. If the questions like how and why shout inside you then it means you are already an engineer. These are the questions which led to discoveries which previously went unnoticed. So how do we develop and sharpen these instincts? As a kid we all were curious and asked questions without the fear of being ridiculed, experimented without fear of failure, but as we grew up we lose that curiosity and courage. The first step is to revive that kid in you who was full of courage and curiosity, who was ready to explore the unknowns, learn and apply the learnings. Let us take an example. In our school days we learnt red, green and blue lights combined together becomes white light but it took more than eight decades from discovery of LED Lights (1990) after LED effect was discovered (1907) while red and green LED indicators were being used since 1962. The simple reason why it took so much of time was no one ever thought LEDs can become source of white light as they forgot that simple principle of components of light.

The engineering institute plays a vital role in building the engineering attitude and aptitude in its engineers by providing the environment and facilities to inculcate innovative thinking. One such example in GNIOT is in Mechanical Department where they designed and fabricated off road buggy which came in top 15 in NCR region. Another example is of our students of Department of Electronics and Instrumentation who developed a working e-commerce website, indohart.com, selling different types of merchandise. To showcase your engineering talent various opportunities exists within the institute in form of major projects and outside it in form of NASA's competition and Google science fair. As a true engineer grab these opportunities and show case your talent Don't just graduate in engineering, become one !
